

FAIR MAPS REDISTRICTING QUIZ

1. What is redistricting?

- When a municipality expands its boundaries into adjacent areas not already incorporated.
- The process of redrawing the boundaries of electoral districts.
- Creating electoral districts to the advantage of a particular group or party.
- Setting up new polling places within a city

2. Who is in charge of redistricting Nebraska?

- The Nebraska Legislature
- The Governor of Nebraska
- The political party who won the most votes in the last presidential election.
- The Nebraska Supreme Court
- All of the above.
- None of the above

3. What is Gerrymandering? Check all that apply.

- Drawing new electoral maps to the advantage of a particular person or group.
- Done by the party in power--could be Democrats and Republicans.
- Is sometimes done to protect incumbents.
- All of the above.
- None of the above.

4. How often does redistricting occur?

- As often as needed
- At the beginning of each century
- Every 10 years following the Census
- When directed by the President of the United States

5. What is Congressional Reapportionment?

- Determines the number of Congressional Representatives each state is allotted.
- Determines the number of Senators in the Nebraska Unicameral.
- Determines the number of US Senators each state is allotted.

6. Nebraska currently has _____ Congressional Districts.

- 2
- 3
- 5
- 49

7. Every state has the same redistricting process.

- True
- False

8. Which Legislative Act prohibits discrimination in voting laws which result in discrimination against racial, ethnic, or language minorities?

- Civil Rights Act of 1866
- 1965 Voting Rights Act
- Americans with Disabilities Act
- Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act

9. Why is fair and open redistricting important to all Nebraskans? Check all that apply.

- It maintains Nebraska's tradition of nonpartisanship.
- There are more contested elections.
- Minority groups are more fairly represented.
- Voters can choose where they want to vote.
- Democrats and Republicans will be evenly divided.

10. Which of the following are ways Nebraskans can work together to promote fair redistricting? Check all that apply.

- Promote the 2020 Census to ensure all Nebraskans are counted.
- Register to vote.
- Educate yourself and others about the importance of fair redistricting.
- Show your support for fair and transparent redistricting.
- Vote for candidates who support fair redistricting.
- All of the above
- None of the above